

Dave Drummond is a location scout for movies, television, commercials, and multimedia projects that film in the state of Washington. Dave's work includes the TV shows "Grey's Anatomy," "Station 19," and "Twin Peaks: The Return," the films "Captain Fantastic" and "Where'd You Go, Bernadette," and the upcoming television series "Penelope." He regularly works with the state film office to lobby on behalf of the film industry in Olympia and speaks about Seattle's rich film history at the SIFF Education Center.